Diocese of St. Augustine

On Sept. 8, 1565, a small band of Spaniards celebrated Mass on the shores of North Florida in preparation for starting a settlement there. They named their new home St. Augustine in honor of the saint on whose feast day they sighted land. Thus were the seeds of Christianity first sown in America north of Mexico.

St. Augustine is the site of the first permanent parish church, now the Cathedral Basilica. The famed Santa Fe Trail originated here. It was from here that Franciscan missionaries began their trek north and west to proclaim the Good News. It was here that the first schools and hospitals were established.

It was not until March 11, 1870, that Florida, east of the Apalachicola River, was designated as the Diocese of St. Augustine. The growth of the church in Florida from this Mother Diocese to six additional dioceses and nearly two million Catholics is a significant part of the story of the Catholic Church in the United States. Today, the Diocese of St. Augustine embraces 17 counties spanning the northeast section of Florida from the Gulf of Mexico to the Atlantic Ocean. It covers 11,032 square miles and serves 153,041 registered Catholics.

Shrines

National Shrine of Our Lady of La Leche at Mission Nombre de Dios

The National Shrine of Our Lady of La Leche at Mission Nombre de Dios in St. Augustine has a rich history that spans more than 450 years. We are recognized as America's oldest Marian Shrine, and the property is referred to as the most peaceful place in the country. Founder's Day is hosted at Mission Nombre de Dios, commemorating the first Mass held on Sept. 8, 1565, with an historical re-enactment of the landing and a special Mass of thanksgiving at the Rustic Altar. This annual tradition serves as a reminder of the deep spiritual significance of the landing site.

We have been honored by our Holy Father, Pope Francis, who granted a Canonical Coronation of the image of Our Lady of La Leche, and we received a blessing for the image residing in the newly renovated Historic Chapel. With open doors for prayer, the shrine welcomes pilgrims seeking spiritual solace, peace and intercessory prayer.

Whether you prefer a docent-led tour, a self-guided exploration or utilizing our bilingual walking mobile app, the grounds offer a serene setting for reflection and prayer. Thousands come weekly to take pictures of the 208-foot Great Cross, the second tallest cross in the United States.

The Shrine Religious Supplies caters to the liturgical needs of parishes and clergy, offering altar and church supplies, religious articles, vestments and more! Proceeds from purchases directly support the mission's endeavors, ensuring it can continue serving the community for years to come.

For those planning a visit, reaching out to the staff ensures a seamless and spiritually fulfilling experience tailored to individual needs. The National Shrine of Our Lady of La Leche at Mission Nombre de Dios stands ready to accommodate visits for personal prayer, pilgrimage, worship or purchasing liturgical items.

Santa Fe Shrine of Our Lady of La Leche (Est. 2015)

The 24-acre shrine provides people living in the western counties of the diocese a place for pilgrimage and spiritual renewal. The name of the shrine, “Santa Fe” (meaning “Holy Faith”) is derived from an old Franciscan mission named “Santa Fe Toloca” (one of the “La Florida” missions) once located near the famous 75-mile Santa Fe River which crisscrosses the High Springs area. The shrine is located at St. Madeleine Sophie Catholic Church in High Springs, Fla. It includes unique devotional opportunities for pilgrims in addition to spending time with Mary, in the shrine like walking the 1.5 mile Emmaus Trail, visiting the Marian grotto and statue of St. Joseph and praying at the outdoor Stations of the Cross. There is also a Memorial Garden and Cemetery on the property.

Evangalization, Office of

The office assists pastors and church workers so that local evangelization efforts, programs and ministries can flourish. This includes a collaborative effort to help all church workers with self-awareness, their faith, needs assessment and skills development so that in every touchpoint they have with the people of God, they are equipped with unique, intentional abilities to boldly walk with those who have fallen away, need help progressing in their faith journey, and welcome the outcast. The office is critical to the bishop's vision of missionary transformation, ecclesial renewal and addressing the social and formation needs within the diocese.

Social & Community Programs

Catholic Charities provides diverse social and community programs to individuals and families in need. The services provided include food assistance, emergency assistance with rent and utilities, refugee resettlement and immigration legal services.

Dial 211 (The United Way) for emergency assistance.

Emergency Assistance

Catholic Charities provides basic needs to individuals and families experiencing a recent financial emergency; we work to prevent homelessness by providing case management and assistance with rent, deposit, and utility assistance to qualified individuals and families. Our food pantry provides 2-3 days of food to those in need, once every 90 days.

Housing Opportunities for Persons with AIDS (HOPWA)

Homelessness prevention by providing one-time rent/utility assistance and housing stabilization services to persons living with HIV/AIDS.

Support Services for Veterans & Families (SSVF)

The program serves veteran families with less than 50% area median income with a combination of case management and rental and utility assistance. Other referrals for professional assistance are provided on a case-by-case basis.

Refugees are designated by the U.S. State Department in cooperation with the United Nations High Commission for Refugees.

Supervised by the USCCB, the program provides services to clients who have fled their home country due to war, persecution for religious, political or social upheaval, and have a well-founded fear of discrimination, torture or death if repatriated. Refugee Resettlement supports local families with reunification, and assists with multiple core services supporting those who enter the U.S. as refugees, SIVs, Cuban/Haitian entrants or who have been granted asylum.

Programs include resettlement and placement, Match Grant (employment), Tiered Case Management, English and Citizenship Classes, and Safe Passages family reunification.
