Course Title: Introduction to Sacred Scripture

Grade Level: Any level grades 9 -12

Description:

This introduction to the Sacred Scriptures centers on the literature of the ancient Israelite community and the writings of the New Testament. Students will have the opportunity to acquire an understanding of the Bible as a historical document interpreted in the light of faith. The central themes of election and covenant will be addressed in the Old Testament portion of the classes. Students will come to a deeper knowledge and understanding of the message of Jesus and His teachings in the New Testament portion. The primary goal of studying the Sacred Scriptures is to come to know the One to whom all Scripture bears witness --- Jesus Christ.

Goals:

1. Involve the student in ten (10) hours of community service in order to integrate the concept of respect for all creation with the Gospel call to service to others.
2. Enable the student to acquire a critical approach to the literature of the ancient Israelite community, which came to be held as Sacred Scripture by the Jewish and Christian religious communities.
3. Enable the student to understand the historical development of the Bible as we have it today including the concepts of: oral tradition, written authorship, canonicity, and the process of Biblical translation.
4. To help the student understand the Bible as the Word of God, and enable the student to distinguish between various methods of Biblical interpretation.
5. Enable the student to understand the Catholic view regarding the Bible and Tradition as the two foundational stones of Catholic doctrine and worship.
6. Help the student understand and appreciate our Jewish roots.
7. Expose the student to the Gospel message of Jesus Christ and assist the student in applying it in everyday life.
8. Provide the student with opportunities to encounter Christ personally through various forms of prayer.
9. Provide the student with a foundation for moral living based on the values of the Gospel.

Major Concepts:

The content should include but not be limited to the following:

1. Modern scriptural scholarship with introduction to Church documents on the subject
2. Outline of Old and New Testaments
3. Various types of literature within the Sacred Scriptures
4. The forming of the canon of Scripture
5. Analysis of the main characters, structures and plots found in the narratives of the Old Testament
6. Comparison of the themes and structures of the four Gospels
7. A basic understanding of human dignity and rights and our responsibility involving the dignity of others as presented in the Sacred Scriptures

Objectives:

Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:

1. Identify the Bible as a collection of writings compiled over hundreds of years by many different authors and deemed to be the inerrant and inspired Word of God.
2. List and explain the various types of literature found in both the Old and New Testaments.
3. Explain the concepts of oral tradition, inspiration and revelation as understood from Catholic theology and documents.
4. Explain the origin of the four Gospels, including the sources used by each.
5. Describe the impact of the Bible on Western culture.
6. Explain in brief form the history of the Jewish people.
7. Describe the methods used in modern academic study of the New Testament.
8. Trace salvation history through the Old and New Testaments
9. Explain how the canon of Scripture was formed.
10. Parallel and differentiate the call to discipleship of the Early Church with their call to discipleship.
11. Explain the relationship between Scripture and Tradition in the Catholic Church.
12. Summarize the important events that led to the separation of Christianity from Judaism.

- 13. Summarize the nature of apocalyptic literature (Book of Revelation) and its significance to the early Christians as well as to modern day Christians.
- 14. Discuss how a personal relationship with Jesus Christ is important in their lives.
- 15. Experience an appreciation for reading and studying the Sacred Scriptures.

GRADE LEVEL: 9-10

DESCRIPTION:

The course includes an overview of the basic teachings of the Catholic faith including beliefs in the existence of God, the life of Jesus, the Trinity, and other selected doctrines of the Catholic Church. This course will provide an overview the Nicene and Apostles' Creeds. This course strives to help students appreciate the beliefs, rituals, moral vision, and prayer models of the Catholic Church.

GOALS:

1. To involve the student in ten (10) hours of Christian service in order to promote respect for others and for creation.
2. To enable the student to become more familiar with the teachings of the Catholic Church (its creed and doctrines) and their place in the priority of truths, namely Catholic Revelation, Tradition and Scripture, Trinity, Church, and afterlife.
3. To assist the student in understanding his/her role as a baptized member of the Church whose call it is to evangelize others.
4. To provide the student with the philosophical and theological foundations of faith.

MAJOR CONCEPTS/COURSE CONTENT:

The content should include but not be limited to the following:

1. A presentation of faith in God in a clear and understandable fashion that can serve as a solid theological foundation upon which the student can build a life
2. A focus on the nature of God as is revealed in the biblical texts, namely as loving Father and Creator
3. An exploration of the Catholic proclamation of Jesus Christ, as Lord and the Incarnate Son of God
4. An exploration of the mystery of Jesus' humanity and divinity as revealed in the New Testament
5. A presentation of the significance of the Paschal Mystery and the meaning of Christ's Resurrection and the Second Coming

6. An analysis of the belief in the third person of the Trinity, the Holy Spirit, to include the themes: names and images of the Spirit, the Spirit's presence in salvation history, and how the Spirit continues to be at work in the Church and world today
7. An exploration of the term "church" as both mystery and sacrament to an understanding of "images" and "models" of the Church
8. An analysis of the mystery of the Catholic Church focusing on the four marks of the Church stated in the Nicene Creed: one, holy, catholic, and apostolic
9. A presentation of the Catholic teaching on the communion of saints, with particular emphasis on Mary, Mother of God
10. A presentation of the Catholic Church's teaching on Eschatology to include the central themes, such as the meaning of life and death from a Catholic perspective, Catholic teaching on heaven, purgatory and hell, and the Last Judgment

OBJECTIVES:

Upon successful completion of the course, the students will be able to:

1. Explain the teaching of the Catholic Church on Divine Revelation.
2. Describe the Catholic understanding of God and his relationship to us.
3. Explain the fundamental doctrine of the Incarnation.
4. Summarize the key mysteries of Jesus' life and what they reveal about Jesus.
5. Illustrate their understanding of Church teaching on Christ's resurrection and the Second Coming.
6. Discover the presence of the Holy Spirit in their own lives and identify how the Spirit is manifested in their hearts and in the world.
7. Describe their understanding of Church as both a mystery and a sacrament.
8. Demonstrate their call as People of God to celebrate worship, proclaim the Gospel, perform service, and participate in community.
9. Identify and explain the four marks of the Church: one, holy, catholic, and apostolic.
10. Illustrate their understanding of sainthood and their relationship to all the members of the faithful, living and dead.
11. State the meaning of life and death from a Catholic perspective.
12. Explain Catholic teaching on heaven, hell, purgatory, and the Last Judgment.
13. Grow in their awareness that the person is not only sacred, but also social. People have the right and duty to participate in society, seeking together the common good and well-being of all, especially the poor and vulnerable.

COURSE TITLE: Morality

GRADE LEVEL: 11-12

DESCRIPTION:

This course provides a foundation for morality from a Christian perspective and in light of Catholic teaching. Contemporary moral issues and concerns will be discussed. The teachings of Scripture, Tradition, Jesus, and the Church provide the basis for a moral decision making process which students are encouraged to use in their real life moral issues.

GOALS:

1. Involve the student in a minimum of ten (10) hours of community service in order to apply Gospel values and to integrate respect for others and respect for creation in his/her life.
2. Promote a thorough catechesis on the Gospel of Life so the respect for life from conception until natural death is honored in personal behavior, in public policy, and in the expressed values and attitudes of our society.
3. Learn how to acquire and follow a well-formed conscience in personal and social life, clarifying current religious and moral questions in the light of faith, and cultivating a Christian discernment of the ethical implications of developments in the socio-cultural order.
4. Study the Ten Commandments, the Beatitudes, and the moral catechesis of the apostolic teachings, and live in accord with them.
5. Understand the meaning and nature of sin and the power of God's grace to overcome it.
6. Identify ways to respond to the moral challenges that face all of us today.
7. Incorporate prayer and spirituality as essential dimensions of Christian moral decision-making.

MAJOR CONCEPTS/COURSE CONTENT:

The content should include but not be limited to the following:

1. Creation of humanity in God's image/likeness
2. Natural Law
3. Sin: original, mortal, venial, social
4. Moral law (e.g.-Decalogue, Beatitudes, and Golden Rule)
5. Moral decision-making
6. Conscience development
7. Integrity in the marketplace

8. Issues of violence vs. peace
9. Contemporary moral issues
10. Prayer
11. Grace, virtue, vice, and temptation
12. Effects of sin

OBJECTIVES:

Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:

1. Describe God's creation of humankind in God's image and what implications that reality has on our self-understanding.
2. Develop an understanding of how sin breaks down our inner integrity and affects our capacity for relationships.
3. Define sin, Original sin; distinguish between types of personal sin such as mortal, venial, and social sin. This will include the effects of sin such as shame, guilt, and the need to confess sin.
4. Distinguish between law and principles and describe natural law and Biblical foundations for moral laws.
5. Demonstrate the positive and negative requirements of each of the commandments found in the Decalogue.
6. Describe the moral values taught by Jesus in the Beatitudes and apply them to specific moral questions.
7. Identify key terms and concepts found in Catholic morality and Tradition such as God's grace, virtue, and corresponding terms, vice, and temptation.
8. Describe conscience formation and human growth and development and the role of intentions and circumstances in making moral decisions and demonstrate the ability to formulate a thoughtful analysis of moral issues.
9. Experience various forms of prayer as a tool to assist them in making right moral decisions, and as a means to a deeper level of discipleship in the Lord.
