Diocese of St. Augustine

On Sept. 8, 1565, a small band of Spaniards celebrated Mass on the shores of North Florida in preparation for starting a settlement there. They named their new home St. Augustine in honor of the saint on whose feast day they sighted land. Thus were the seeds of Christianity first sown in America north of Mexico.

St. Augustine is the site of the first permanent parish church, now the Cathedral Basilica. The famed Santa Fe Trail originated here. It was from here that Franciscan missionaries began their trek north and west to proclaim the Good News. It was here that the first schools and hospitals were established.

It was not until March 11, 1870, that Florida, east of the Apalachicola River, was designated as the Diocese of St. Augustine. The growth of the church in Florida from this Mother Diocese to six additional dioceses and nearly two million Catholics is a significant part of the story of the Catholic Church in the United States. Today, the Diocese of St. Augustine embraces 17 counties spanning the northeast section of Florida from the Gulf of Mexico to the Atlantic Ocean. It covers 11,032 square miles and serves 153,041 registered Catholics.

Shrines

National Shrine of Our Lady of La Leche at Mission Nombre de Dios

The National Shrine of Our Lady of La Leche at Mission Nombre de Dios in St. Augustine is America's oldest Marian Shrine, dating back to the early 1600s. The travel industry voted the mission and shrine one of the most peaceful places in the country. Founder's Day is hosted at Mission Nombre de Dios, commemorating the first Mass held on these shores on Sept. 8, 1565. The event features a reenactment of the first Mass of Thanksgiving at the outdoor Rustic Altar.

Pope Francis honored the shrine with a Canonical Coronation of the image of Our Lady of La Leche, now in the renovated Historic Chapel. The shrine welcomes pilgrims daily for prayer and reflection.

Visitors can explore the grounds through docent-led tours, self-guided visits or a bilingual walking app. Highlights include the 208-foot Great Cross, the second tallest in the U.S. Reaching out to the staff ensures a seamless and spiritually fulfilling experience tailored to individual needs.

The Shrine Religious Supplies offers liturgical items, with proceeds supporting the mission. To arrange a personalized visit, contact the staff.

Santa Fe Shrine of Our Lady of La Leche (Est. 2015)

The Santa Fe Shrine honors the Franciscan missionaries and Timucuan converts who dedicated our region to the Catholic faith and Our Lady in the 17th century. Thousands of pilgrims visit each year to pray in the historic chapel dedicated to Our Lady of La Leche, explore the 24-acre grounds and mission trail, visit the Marian grotto and reflect in the memorial garden and cemetery.

The shrine is open daily from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. It hosts various events, including Days of Reflection, OCIA retreats, liturgical minister retreats, speaker series and walking pilgrimages. Groups can also visit the gift shop and the new Marian Library. Please contact us to schedule a group visit or inquire about upcoming events.

Located on the grounds of St. Madeleine Sophie Catholic Church in High Springs, the shrine is easily accessible on U.S. Highway 441, three miles west of I-75 (Exit 399), with ample parking. Whether you stop briefly at Our Lady's Chapel or spend the day exploring, may God bless your pilgrimage here!

Evangalization, Office of

The office assists pastors and church workers so that local evangelization efforts, programs and ministries can flourish. This includes a collaborative effort to help all church workers with self-awareness, their faith, needs assessment and skills development so that in every touchpoint they have with the people of God, they are equipped with unique, intentional abilities to boldly walk with those who have fallen away, need help progressing in their faith journey, and welcome the outcast. The office is critical to the bishop's vision of missionary transformation, ecclesial renewal and addressing the social and formation needs within the diocese.

Help Spread the Faith

CATHOLIC COMMUNICATIONS APPEAL SEPTEMBER 21-22, 2024

Support the Mission. Share the Message. In today's world, the message of Christ needs to be heard more than ever. By supporting the appeal, you can help the church harness the power of modern communication to spread the Good News to our communities and beyond.

Why Give? Empower Evangelization: Your contribution helps the church reach out through digital platforms, social media, radio, video and print, spreading the message of love, hope and faith.

Your Impact Support Local Catholic Media: Your generosity helps fund St. Augustine Catholic magazine, the weekly radio Mass in Spanish, video messages for the web and social media, digital content that educates, inspires and connects people to a faith community and communication resources for parishes.

How to Give Your gift to the annual appeal directly supports the vital work of communicating the Gospel to the world. Every dollar you give helps the local church be a voice of truth and love in a noisy and divided world.

In-Pew Giving: Envelopes will be provided at all Masses on the weekend of Sept. 21-22.

Online: Go to the diocesan website to donate or scan the QR code.

Mail: Drop your envelope in the collection basket marked "HSF: Catholic Communications Appeal" or send it to the Catholic Center, 11625 Old St. Augustine Road, Jacksonville, FL 32258.

Spread the Word! Your support makes it possible to share the Gospel with more people in more ways than ever before. Together, we can help spread the faith and keep the light of Christ shining bright.

Contact: Kathleen Bagg
at kbagg@dosaf1.com or

Homes for the Developmentally Disabled

L'Arche Harbor House

Founded in 1985, we are a community of the L'Arche International Federation. Our community consists of adults with intellectual and physical disabilities and the live-in assistants who share daily life with them. We have five residential homes and a day program called L'Arche Rainbow Workshop. As our mission states, we believe, by creating an environment where people with intellectual disabilities can share their gifts, we are effecting a positive change in the world. L'Arche Harbor House celebrates the unique value of every person

Sisters of St. Joseph

Are you searching for a closer relationship with God? Do you want to help others? We are called to a radical following of Jesus, and seek to reflect God's great love. As vowed and apostolic women Religious, rooted in prayer and supported by community, we live and work to foster human dignity and union with God and one another, in simplicity and joy.

Please give to those who have given a lifetime.

Retirement Fund for Religious

Elderly religious need your help. Like those pictured, nearly 25,000 senior sisters, brothers and religious order priests have dedicated their lives to serving others through prayer and ministry. Yet years of serving for little or no pay have left a profound shortage in retirement savings. Your support of the Retirement Fund for Religious helps furnish care, medicine and other necessities. Please give generously.

Please give at your local parish.

To donate by mail:

National Religious Retirement Office
3211 Fourth Street NE
Washington DC 20017-1194

Make check payable to Retirement Fund for Religious.
