Diocese of St. Augustine

On Sept. 8, 1565, a small band of Spaniards celebrated Mass on the shores of North Florida in preparation for starting a settlement there. They named their new home St. Augustine in honor of the saint on whose feast day they sighted land. Thus were the seeds of Christianity first sown in America north of Mexico.

St. Augustine is the site of the first permanent parish church, now the Cathedral Basilica. The famed Santa Fe Trail originated here. It was from here that Franciscan missionaries began their trek north and west to proclaim the Good News. It was here that the first schools and hospitals were established.

It was not until March 11, 1870, that Florida, east of the Apalachicola River, was designated as the Diocese of St. Augustine. The growth of the church in Florida from this Mother Diocese to six additional dioceses and nearly two million Catholics is a significant part of the story of the Catholic Church in the United States. Today, the Diocese of St. Augustine embraces 17 counties spanning the northeast section of Florida from the Gulf of Mexico to the Atlantic Ocean. It covers 11,032 square miles and serves 164,079 registered Catholics.

Shrines

National Shrine of Our Lady of La Leche at Mission Nombre de Dios

The National Shrine of Our Lady of La Leche at Mission Nombre de Dios in St. Augustine is America's oldest Marian Shrine, dating back to the early 1600s.

In 2021, Pope Francis honored the shrine with a Canonical Coronation of the image of Our Lady of La Leche, now in the renovated Historic Chapel. The shrine welcomes pilgrims daily for prayer and reflection.

Visitors can explore the grounds through docent-led tours, self-guided visits or a bilingual walking app. Highlights include the 208-foot Great Cross, the second tallest in the U.S. Reaching out to the staff ensures a seamless and spiritually fulfilling experience tailored to individual needs.

Santa Fe Shrine of Our Lady of La Leche (Est. 2015)

The Santa Fe Shrine honors the Franciscan missionaries and Timucuan converts who dedicated our region to the Catholic faith and Our Lady in the 17th century. Thousands of pilgrims visit each year to pray here, dedicated to Our Lady of La Leche, explore the 24-acre grounds and mission trail, visit the Marian grotto and reflect in the memorial garden and cemetery.

The shrine is open daily from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. It hosts various events, including Days of Reflection, OCIA retreats, liturgical minister retreats, speaker series and walking pilgrimages. Groups can also visit the gift shop and the new Marian library. Please contact us to schedule a group visit or inquire about upcoming events.

Located on the grounds of St. Madeleine Sophie Catholic Church in High Springs, the shrine is easily accessible on U.S. Highway 441, three miles west of I-75 (Exit 399), with ample parking. Whether you stop briefly at Our Lady's Chapel or spend the day exploring, may God bless your pilgrimage here!

Founded in 1985, we are a community of the L'Arche International Federation. Our community consists of adults with intellectual and physical disabilities and the live-in assistants who share daily life with them. We have five residential homes and a day program called L'Arche Rainbow Workshop. As our mission states, we believe, by creating an environment where people with intellectual disabilities can share their gifts, we are effecting a positive change in the world. Our aging religious need your help. Like those pictured, more than 24,000 senior sisters, brothers, and religious order priests have devoted their lives to prayer and ministry—usually for little pay. Today, many religious communities struggle to care for aging members. Please give back to those who have given a lifetime.

Please give at your local parish.
